5+1 Villa with swimming pool and sea view, in Meia Praia

Ref. M048 LAGOS - MEIA PRAIA

Known by the name of Quinta dos Mascarenhas, this 5+1 bedroom villa is located on high ground in Meia Praia, a beautiful suburb in the outskirts of Lagos. Built about 300 metres away from the beach and not too far from the well-known golf course of Palmares, this magnificent double storey residence of typical Algarve architectural design, was decorated with typical oriental motives where the lotus flower stands out as the symbol representing elegance, beauty and perfection, a promise of purity and spiritual uplift.

The moment you cross the front door on the ground floor and cross the entrance hall, you're faced with an immense lounge with fireplace and external access, a sober, elegant dining room, a visitor's rest room, a fully equipped kitchen, and a large pantry. There is also a bedroom (with a private bathroom) and a games room. The staircase that leads you upstairs is equipped with an elevator chair for people with reduced mobility. The first floor is reserved for the more private area, with a small sitting room, 4 bedrooms with private shower-rooms, 3 of which have doors leading to a beautiful balcony where one can enjoy the most stunning view over the bay of Meia-Praia. Externally and around the main house you have an ample terrace with a large swimming pool and an integrated covered support area (with barbecue, bar and entertainment facilities), security quarters with bed and bathrooms next to the main entrance gate, an outbuilding fitted with laundry equipment and two large, covered areas for car parking. There are also plants and flowers throughout the garden and many statues and décor pieces which contrast with the green colour of the vegetation in the background.
